

Welcome to GLASSHOUSE your home away from home

Kick back, relax, put your feet up (ok maybe not that far) while we do the cooking for you.

We pride ourselves in serving fresh local produce, supporting our locals is our MO not just because Wellington does it best but also because ... well they are good folks. Start with humble beginnings mix in a bit of Kiwi ingenuity and in some cases a backyard / garage and you have a recipe for some of the best products around.

You'll see the following names mentioned in our Menu and we think their stories are too good not to share...

Mike, inspired by his Cypriot mother decided to research the art of cheese-making. With a Food Technologist degree under his belt, years of perfecting the art of cheese-making and having installed a VAT machine outside his Sisters Wellington house Zany Zeus become a reality in 2000. Demand has increased over the years so much so people were banging on their factory door thus forcing them to open their first retail shop in Moera, Lower Hutt.

Having worked as a farmer for 20 years, Vic realised city folk were missing out. Vic established Meat Direct in Khandallah with the aim of providing the freshest possible meat, chicken and fish.

Baxter's Original is a family run Wellington business. Inspired by the lack of hypoallergenic products available in the market they have perfected their recipes over the past couple of years. Starting out selling to work mates they have expanded their hand crafted products to the nation.

Makikihi Fries was born and is now over 30 years in production and continues to grow from strength to strength. The golden fries are made from the famous golden potatoes grown in South Canterbury where Jac Bleeker lived. His son Mark owns the factory and other son Jeffrey still helps to grow potatoes required for all year round production.

We love our menu but these are our particular favs. From our Australian GM who can't live without our Kiwiburger to our Sales and Marketing Manager who can't resist a good Thai Beef Salad and the picks in between.
