HISTORY

In 1888 Tamworth became the first town in Australia & the southern hemisphere to provide its residents with electric street lighting. The Powerhouse hotel was built on the old power station or 'power house' site in 1986 - hence the name! You will see artwork & design influences throughout the hotel that reference this unique & intriguing history. The obelisk at the front of the hotel was erected to celebrate the history of Tamworth as the First City of Lights.

REDEVELOPMENT

Multi million dollar hotel redevelopment by leading international hospitality design company Paul Kelly Design.

2018 Stage 1

ECO FRIENDLY

The Powerhouse is committed to energy & water conservation, recycling & waste reduction in our hotel. Our green initiatives include:

Soap Aid Ambassadors We collect used hotel soaps for Soap Aid which recycles & sends the new bars of soaps to global communities facing major hygiene challenges.

Green Choice Decline a daily housekeeping service & receive a Food & Beverage credit. Plus we've introduced shower timers, paper straws, eco conscious cleaning products & recycled water for gardens. We're also proud to be nominated in Tamworth Regional Council's Water Sustainability Awards.

POWERHOUSE MOTORCYCLE MUSEUM

The Powerhouse Motorcycle Museum, located on site, is a must see for any bike enthusiast. The Museum houses a private collection of over 50 motorcycles in pristine condition from the 50s, 60s, 70s & 80s. Open 7 days from 9am to 5pm.
